

SYRACUSE CHAPTER OF THE CPCU SOCIETY AWARDS SCHOLARSHIPS, July 2022

The Syracuse Chapter of the CPCU (Chartered Property Casualty Underwriter) Society awarded $3,000 in Scholarships.

Applicants were invited to visit insuremypath.org to answer seven quick questions to reveal their ideal risk management and insurance career. Per the website, “You may not know much about risk management and insurance or the specific job that would work best for you. But your answers to these seven quick (and unscientific) questions could start you on the path to your dream career—or at least inspire you to keep exploring.” Students wrote an essay about their dream career in the risk management and insurance industry, and how earning the CPCU designation would help them in their ideal career

Natalie Day graduated from Dryden High School and will be attending Wells College in the fall pursuing a major in Business Administration. While in high school, Natalie was a member of the National Honor Society, as well as the Business and Marketing Honor Society, and served as secretary for both clubs. Natalie is a three-sport athlete, achieved high honor roll while working part-time. Natalie enjoys playing softball, volleyball, and spending time with friends and family.

Nathan Healey is a Risk Management, Insurance and Management dual major from Le Moyne College. Nathan plans to graduate in May of 2023. Nathan enjoys spending time with friends, watching, and playing different kinds of sports. Nathan loves watching Syracuse basketball. Nathan interned at an insurance company for the past year, working in the claims department.

Rebecca Ortloff graduated from Cicero-North Syracuse High School in the top 10% of scholars. Rebecca plans to attend Hobart and William Smith Colleges this fall majoring in chemistry. Throughout high school, Rebecca belonged to a variety of clubs including Yearbook Club, Community Builders, and was a leader for the school's GSA (Gay Straight Alliance) program. Rebecca loves to volunteer and has worked in soup kitchens, made blankets and scarves, and participated in Earth Day clean-ups. Rebecca has also repeatedly volunteered for the Vietnamese Community of Syracuse for events such as the Mid-Autumn Festival/Children's Festival.

The American Institute for CPCU is an independent, nonprofit educational organization that confers the CPCU designation on persons who complete eight rigorous courses to pass national examinations and meet its ethics and experience requirements. All CPCUs are required to maintain and to improve their professional knowledge, skills, and competence through their commitment to the American Institute's Code of Professional Ethics. The CPCU Society is a community of credentialed property and casualty insurance professionals who promote excellence through ethical behavior and continuing education.

The Syracuse Chapter was founded in 1959 and has approximately 76 members from Syracuse and the surrounding areas of Central New York.
